Top: Tzeitel and Motel under the canopy at the wedding.
Above: Fruma-Sara shrieks her curse of death in the event that Tzeitel and Lazar Wolf marry. Right: Chava and Hodel plead for the matchmaker to take her time in selecting a husband for them.

Fiddler on the Roof was partially funded by a grant from The National Humanities Faculty Project of Area III.

This production of Fiddler on the Roof is the product of the talents, energy, and generosity of many people. It has involved Washington students and faculty as well as members of the community at large. To all who have worked so hard we can only say Thank You.
