APPRENTICESHIPS AVAILABLE

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS. If you are looking for a job that pays well and has a future, the Marine Corps can help you. Recently an agreement was signed between the Marine Corps and the U.S. Department of Labor which allows Marine Corps training and experience to be used in completing a formal apprenticeship while on active duty.

FOR MORE INFORMATION ON this program, contact Jerry Koptish or Albert Neuman at 775-9898 in Portland.

Take your time- we'll be glad to wait.

It's graduation time and you're thinking of joining the Army. But you're not quite ready to leave home. You want to enjoy this summer.... you want to have some time for travel or just to be with your friends and family. We can dig that. So why not look into the Army's Delayed Entry Program? You can enlist first and take up to 12 months before reporting for your training. Your Army Recruiter has the details. Why not see or call him? Enjoy yourself knowing that you've got a good job waiting for you later. Have a good time now...we'll be glad to wait for you.

This production of the musical THE BOY FRIEND was made possible by endless contributions of time and effort, from students, faculty, parents, and the community. The cast of THE BOY FRIEND wish to thank all of these supporting people.

THE BOY FRIEND was partially funded through a grant from the Program Changes Objective.
